

Effective from 4 May 2021

There is a risk that ...	Control	Action	By Date	By Whom
Customers may carry the virus	Enforcement of social distancing rules	Install signage and floor markings
		Remove books and CDs from shop entrance
		Remove trolleys in front of window to create more room
	Limit to the the number of customers in the shop	Through door control limit the number of customers to 3
	Barrier at payment station	Perspex barrier installed
	Prevention of customers trying on clothes	Close the fitting room
	Limit the handling of all jewellery	Clean all items before returning to cabinet
	Removal of risk of virus on toys	Remove all toys and games from the floor area of the shop. Display on high shelves
	Reduce risk of virus on obviously frequently handled items	Remove items from the shop and quarantine for a minimum of 72 hrs
	Contactless payments	Encourage customers to use contactless payments
	Limit to total number of people in the shop	Re-stock at end of day or when one or two customers present
Customer donations carry the virus	Handling of incoming donations wearing gloves	Provide supply of protective gloves and anti-bacterial gel
	Store donations for a minimum of 72 hours	Create five labelled spaces (Tues-Sat) in the garage
	Handling of donations when safe to do so	Transfer new donations from garage to Johnsons after min 72 hrs
	Washing / clean all donations having hard surfaces	Provide anti-bacterial cleaning materials
	Washing / clean surfaces in Johnsons every 3 hours	Provide anti-bacterial cleaning materials
	Charity Shop workers may carry the virus	Enforcement of social distancing rules	Workers must agree to follow the strict rules
	Hygiene	Provide handwashing and paper towels

		Provide PPE - face masks, shields and gloves
		Clean toilet, taps and handbasin after every use
		Remove cloth tea towels and hand towels from the premises
	Reduction in risk of transferring virus	All workers to bring own cups and drinks
	Limit to the total number of people in the shop	Re-stock at end of day or when one or two customers present		